

Kingston and St George's Pre-Registration Student Nurses Preparation for Practice
Jessica Inch: Senior Lecturer Practice Learning

Part 1 Content

- The organisation of practice: Zones, pathways and placements
- The role of the student in Preparing for Practice
- The-pre registration student placement guide
- E-learning for Health Mandatory preparation for Part 1
- Expectations of students and supervisors/assessors
- Supportive roles in practice
- SMART objective setting
- Developing professional values in practice
- Practice Assessment Documentation and Ongoing Achievement Record
- Student limitations and patient safety in placement
- Raising concerns and complaints in practice
- European Union Directives for Adult field
- Practice Evaluation and feedback
- Marking and Moderation of Practice

Part 2 Content

- Expectations of students and supervisors/assessors for Part 2
- Independent, personal preparation for practice Part 2
- E-learning for Health Mandatory preparation for Part 2
- Feedback of marking moderations
- Changes to the PAD guidance for the coming academic year
- Moderation feedback for improving Practice assessment
- Part 2 Assessments
- Promoting resilience for practice
- Evaluation and feedback in practice

Part 3 Content

- Expectations of students and supervisors/assessors for Part 3
- Practice Assessments for Part 3
- Feedback of moderations
- Preparation for final placement and final submission
- Employability and planning ahead with SMART objectives
- E-learning for Health Mandatory preparation for Part 3
- Continuing EU Directives for the Adult student nurses
- Preparation/transition to registrant, employment and preceptorship
- Preparation for new models of supervision and preceptorship