

Learning Disability Research Group

Faculty of Health,
Social Care & Education

Kingston
University
London

Irene Tuffrey-Wijne
CHAIR

Richard Keagan-Bull
CO-CHAIR

Who are we?

We are a group of people working and studying at Kingston & St George's University in London.

We meet every month to talk about research. Our research is about health and social care.

Irene and Richard chair the meetings. They are researchers at the university.

Irene is a professor. Richard is a researcher with learning disabilities.

We are interested in doing research that MATTERS to people with learning disabilities.

We think that research should INCLUDE people with learning disabilities.

We talk together about:

- Research we have done
- Research we want to do
- How we can do research together with people with learning disabilities

Who can join the group?

You can join if you are interested in research about health and social care that matters to people with learning disabilities.

You can join if you:

- Have done research, OR
- Have not done research yet, but would like to, OR
- Are just interested in hearing about research

We welcome:

- People with learning disabilities
- People working at the university
- University students
- People working in learning disability services
- Family and carers
- Anyone else – it doesn't matter who you are, as long as you are interested!

Start

12:00
